SEPTEMBER 2007

SEPTEMBER 8TH MEETING 10 AM
YOUNG EAGLES AT 11 AM

Long time Chapter 932 member Bill Lasky will tell the story of Wilbur and Orville Wright as he found it on his visits to Dayton, OH and Kitty Hawk, NC. Bill is an excellent photographer whose pictures will bring the story to life almost as well as if you made the trip yourself.

Join us for coffee (9:30) and the meeting at 10 AM. Beginning at 11 AM we will be doing Young Eagle flights. As always, we need help both hopping rides and also on the ground handling paper work, answering questions and keeping people out of props, etc. Come on out! We'll probably grill a brat and/or burger for lunch.

DAN JOHNSON

Captain Dan Johnson, AAL, retired, is fulfilling a life long fantasy and is "bush piloting" a DeHaviland Beaver out of Ketchikan, AK this summer. He's been sending interesting weekly reports via E-mail and will be coming home in September. Let's hope he works up a presentation for a future Chapter meeting. His PowerPoint presentation last year on his and Nancy's first trip to Alaska in their C-180 amphibian was well attended and well received. It was very professional and we're looking forward to more!

HEADS UP FOR OCTOBER 13TH

By John Roach

While October 13th may look like it's a long way down the runway, it's not too soon to get out your crock-pot and fine tune your favorite chili recipe. Each year as the leaves change color, EAA 932 holds ChiliFest: an opportunity for members and their families to taste a variety of mouth-watering (and heating) dishes during an evening of pleasant conversation.

This year's event (to be held in a hangar to be announced) will conclude a somewhat busy day for chapter members. There will be a short business meeting at the usual place and time followed by setting up tables and chairs for the evening's event. In the afternoon, given good weather and significant interest, there could be a Spot Landing Contest. So dust off the crock-pots, dice up the meat and search the food markets for the most flavorful chilies. October 13th and ChiliFest is closer than you think.

FLYERS & TIRES '07

Larry Schubert and Steve Mark grill. The weather was great and attendance was good both Saturday and Sunday.

NOT HAVING SUCH A "GREAT SUMMER"

The following is taken from the Northwest Herald account of this July 30 off airport landing:

"An airplane pilot and his passenger appeared to be in good condition after their small aircraft crashed into the front lawn of an elementary school Monday morning."

"Pilot Thomas N. Chapman, 62, of Harvard and passenger Roch T. Magelby-Lambert, 29, of Cambridge, Mass., had just taken off from Galt Airport, east of Woodstock, for a sight-seeing tour about 9 a.m. when the plane started having mechanical problems and ended up landing at Greenwood Elementary School, McHenry County Sheriff's Lt. John Miller said."

"'They tried to return to the airport,' Miller said."

"'The plane struck a power line and crashed into the school sign and landed.'"
